Transrespect versus Transphobia Worldwide

Transrespect versus Transphobia Worldwide [TvT] provides The TvT 'Legal and Social Mapping' tables provide advocacy tools for international institutions, human rights America, Europe and Oceania. organisations, the trans movement and the general public. It is a comparative, ongoing qualitative-quantitative research These TvT 'Legal and Social Mapping – World #1 – Legal project conducted by TGEU's TvT team in close cooperation Gender Recognition, Anti-Discrimination, Hate Crime and with 20 partner organizations and more than 50 trans Asylum Legislation' tables visualise trans-specific and activists and researchers in all six world regions.

and can be viewed in detail in English and Spanish on the existing trans activism. TvT website: www.transrespect-transphobia.org

A research project funded by

HEINRICH BÖLL STIFTUNG

The 'Legal and Social Mapping' was produced by Transgender Europe's Transrespect versus Transphobia Worldwide [TvT] project [current as of Aug. 2014]. Continuous updates and more detailed information can be found at www.transrespect-transphobia.org

The TvT research report from 2012 discusses and contextualises these Mappings: www.transrespect-transphobia.org/uploads/downloads/Publications/TvT_ research-report.pdf.

- I Icons displayed behind the green and yellow 'check' icons specify the legal measure/proposal; in the column 'Legal change of name', these are restrictions; in the column 'Legal change of gender', these are restrictions or positive change of gender', these are restrictions or positive
- 2 The Icon 'Different in practice' applies both to countries with existing legal measures, meaning a limitation [red icon], and to countries without legal measures, meaning practical possibilities without existing legislation [yellow icon].

The data for the countries Andorra, Belarus, Czech Republik, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Monaco and San Marino was taken from Transgender Europe's 'Trans Rights Europe Map and Index', which has been developed in cooperation with ILGA-Europe.
